

HARRIS.
One-Price, Square-Dealing,
CLOTHIER,
ST. LOUIS BLOCK,
MAIN STREET.

It is not often you can hear of a dealer in the Ready Made article of Clothing issue a Challenge to the Custom Tailors to equal with their work the class of goods he is selling, but here is an occasion where you can see it.

Take a stroll about our city, examine the Suits you see your friends have worked a month to pay for; look at the specimens displayed at the tailor shops, and then come down to our store; and if we don't discount them in STYLE, in FIT, in APPEARANCE, in TEXTURE, and in PRICE, we will acknowledge the corn, cancel our advertising contracts and retire from business.

You foolish men! who have been paying $50, $60 and $70 for a Suit of Clothes, come and see what we are offering for anywhere from $22 to $35, and we will guarantee you will regret your reckless Waste of Wealth, and hereafter buy your Clothing from us.

MILLER HATS.

But another point that will interest you is our cut on

FALL OVERCOATS,
the Finest at $18. Take your pick for $18! Those Silk Lined, Wide Wales, formerly $30, now $18. Those Beautiful Kerseys sold for $25, now $18. Those Silk Faced Diagonals, worth $28, now $18. There ain't many of them, so to be sure of securing your choice, come soon before they are all gone.

STYLISH NECKWEAR.

To our numerous Lady Patrons, we would say: Our Department of Clothing for Boys and Children is more worthy of their attention than ever. Complete in every detail, lines numerous and varied, we feel that we have outdone all former efforts in the display we make this year.

The nobly little Jersey Suits are the admiration of all that see them, while the Plush Trimmed Overcoats—size 4 to 10—have induced purchases from ladies which had never before failed to send east when anything was needed for the little fellows. Fully 1,000 pairs of odd pairs for the "little shavers," and Flannel Waists from $1 upwards.

MILLER HATS.

LEADVILLE, Oct. 15.—A frightful accident happened to Jas. McHaskey, a workman at the American smelting company this morning. He was wheeling out a pot of hot slag and he rested a moment on the edge of one of the pots filled with burning slag. He lost his balance and went in. In attempting to save himself he put his arms and hands into the liquid, which caused such frightful agonies that he lost control of himself and fell clear into the boiling mass. From the waist down to the knees the flesh is horribly burned, as are also the arms, hands and head. He is a most pitiable sight.

Killed From Ambush.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 15.—New has been received that Jno. Caywood and H. Hall were shot down from ambush last week, ten miles from Harlan. Caywood was a wealthy farmer and had a farm hand. Caywood is a brother-in-law of Judge Lewis, who attempted last summer to arrest Will Howard and his gang of outlaws. Howard is suspected of complicity in the assassination.

He Murdered his Mother-in-law.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Oct. 15.—Robert Barner was taken from jail and lynched to night. He murdered his mother-in-law last week.

ODD FELLOWS' SESSION.

First Day's Meeting of the Grand Lodge of Montana at Great Falls.

All the Lodges Represented Beside Visitors From Various Other Sections.

The Officers Who Will Represent the Order the Coming Year—Exposition and Banquet To-day.

GREAT FALLS, Oct. 15.—[Special.]—The grand lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows began its fifteenth annual session here to-day under the happiest auspices. The attendance is large, and the reports from each lodge gratifying. Most of the representatives and grand officers arrived last evening and received a cordial welcome from the people. (The sessions are held in the Masonic building, Grand Master Andrew Logan, Missoula, presiding. The proceedings were opened in accordance with the simple but impressive ritual of the order. The grand officers present are as follows: A. J. Stone, Helena, deputy grand master; N. C. Kinney, Butte, grand warden; J. J. York, Butte, grand secretary; Jacob Loeb and J. P. McCabe, Helena, grand representatives; Philip Dodson, Bozeman, grand marshal; J. J. Hennessy, White Sulphur Springs, grand chancellor; Benjamin Piser, Philipsburg, grand herald; W. W. Shipman, Helena, grand guardian; Masena Bullard, Helena, grand chaplain, and H. M. Murphy, Butte, as grand instructor.

The several lodges of the order throughout Montana are represented as follows: Montana, F. E. Thieme, Emil Kluge, J. M. Winkelman; Western Star, J. Mendelsohn; Excelsior, H. Asmussen, C. M. Williams, Joseph Wanz, P. H. Washburn; Covenant, F. P. Kern; Fidelity, T. F. Gray, W. Hugo, J. B. Candler; Cable, Jacob Warner; Samaritan, Fred Ellinghouse, Rideley D. Bernstein, H. H. Stanley, Charles Schatzlein; Custer, C. W. Seyde, J. C. Budd; Garden Valley, John M. Buschbill; Castle Mountain, E. D. Gardner; Park, J. J. Berke; Colfax, C. H. Tracy; Dearborn, A. H. Fey; Eagle, J. C. Berg; Olive Branch, James Harris, W. Nankville; Marysville, George Kirby; Sun River, J. F. Athey, H. D. Blossom; Big Horn, E. A. Richardson; Rainbow, James Carrier; Chesnut Valley, B. Rumney, Mountain Home, S. T. Walliston; Skalkaho, R. W. Nocal, visitor; Fidelity, San Francisco, J. E. Neal, visitor; Fidelity, Anoka, Minn., Frank F. Goss, visitor.

Business affairs occupied the grand lodge during the early part of the day. In the afternoon the following officers were chosen for the ensuing year: grand master, S. I. Stone, of Helena; deputy grand master, N. C. Kinney, of Walkerville; grand warden, Philip Dodson, of Bozeman; secretary, A. J. White, of Butte; treasurer, J. J. York, of Butte; grand representative, J. J. Hennessy, of White Sulphur Springs.

Good feeling prevailed throughout the entire proceedings, which have been very satisfactory to the veteran members of the order. To-morrow the grand lodge will be again in session. The members will visit the falls and in the evening will assemble at the Park hotel to celebrate by a grand banquet the success of this happy reunion.

FILLED HIM WITH BUCKSHOT.

Fatal Affray in Massachusetts Growing Out of an Old Crime.

NICHOLSON, Mass., Oct. 15.—A fatal affray occurred here to-day, virtually the outgrowth of a tragedy a year ago, in which Druggist Vamodo was assaulted. The case against Dr. Tett, charged with complicity, was dismissed for want of proper evidence. After this E. C. Collins, one of the witnesses against Tett, was heard talking about the matter outside. Tett went home, got a gun and returned, and finding Collins talking with several people at the court house, fired two loads of buckshot into his face, killing him instantly. Mr. Horton, a bystander, was quite seriously wounded. Collins's brother-in-law, J. W. Turner, then opened fire on Tett with a pistol, and he was fatally wounded, dying in a short time.

A WORKMAN'S HORRIBLE FATE.

Jas. McHaskey Falls into a Pot of Red Hot Slag.

LEADVILLE, Oct. 15.—A frightful accident happened to Jas. McHaskey, a workman at the American smelting company this morning. He was wheeling out a pot of hot slag and he rested a moment on the edge of one of the pots filled with burning slag. He lost his balance and went in. In attempting to save himself he put his arms and hands into the liquid, which caused such frightful agonies that he lost control of himself and fell clear into the boiling mass. ANOTHER CONFEER GONE.

Death of Captain C. P. Higgins After a Busy Life.

MISSOULA, Oct. 15.—[Special.]—Captain C. P. Higgins, the founder of the city of Missoula, died here at 11 p. m. last night. To-day the whole city has mourned. The remains will be interred to-morrow at 2 p. m. The public buildings are all draped in mourning and all business will be suspended to-morrow. John, the second son of the deceased, is out in the mountains with a hunting party and parties have been looking for him for the past three days, but the indications are he will not reach home prior to his father's funeral. Morris, another son, left St. Paul this afternoon, but will arrive too late.

Capt. C. P. Higgins was one of the oldest settlers in Montana. Born in Ireland in March, 1830, he came to America in his youth and at the age of 18 enlisted in the United States army. In 1853 he joined Gov. Stephens' expedition and assisted in the first survey of the Northern Pacific railroad, remaining in that work until 1855. In that year he accompanied Gov. Stephens on his mission to make a treaty with the Nez Perces, but which resulted in a treaty with the Flatheads and Pen d'Oreilles. He afterwards accompanied the party some distance to the Blackfoot, the conference being held at Fort Benton. Capt. Higgins was then put in charge of a military force by the general government and ordered to subdue the Indians in Montana, who were continuously attacking the immigrant trains then daily arriving in the territory. Later he was assigned to the quartermaster's department, where he remained until 1860, part of the time being stationed at Walla Walla. In 1865 Capt. Higgins located the present townsite of Missoula, where he engaged for that time in the mercantile business. In 1870 he engaged in the banking business and was at the head of the Higgins National bank. He was also extensively engaged in stock-raising and mining and no man in Montana was better known than he. He saw the town he located grow up into a thriving city and was ever ready to show his faith in its future by his work. He leaves a large fortune, gained by close application to his business and honorable dealing.

THE EPISCOPALIANS.

Missions in Various Sections Considered by the Convention.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—At the missionary meeting of the Protestant Episcopal convention Rev. Daniel Leonard, bishop of Nevada and Utah, spoke of the decadence of Nevada and how the population has fallen under forty thousand. In Utah the Mormon question is far from settled. When he first went there he thought he knew something about it, but now, after years of work, he confessed it puzzled him. Rev. Jno. Mills Kendrick, missionary in New Mexico and Arizona, occupied the greater portion of his time describing the physical appearance of his diocese and the necessity of irrigation. Many of his constituents were Mexicans and Indians who can not be reached through the English language. He thought before money should be spent in churches and schools, new men should be sent into the field. Five active missionaries were needed. The Indians were but little better than pagans and church work should begin with them.

At the afternoon session Rev. W. B. Gordon, who was appointed to counsel the Episcopal workers in Mexico, reported good progress. "There are but two classes in Mexico," said the speaker: "the higher class are infidels, the lower class are infidels. If any man wants to see the need of missions, let him come with me to Mexico. If he cannot see the need for overcoming the vice, superstition and intemperance of the inhabitants, he is unconvinced."

The committee to whom was referred the report of the board of managers of foreign and domestic missions, regarding the proposed million dollar endowment fund, which failed in its purpose, suggested that the money be returned to the subscribers. The matter was laid over. The committee on national evangelization moved that $40,000 be appropriated for the committee for the ensuing two years. Carried.

In the convention to-day the committee on canons was discharged after the adoption of a report recommending the establishment of a board of regents on Christian education. The report of the committee on amendments to the constitution was placed on the calendar and the committee discharged. Resolutions were passed requesting congress to pass a district and uniform divorce law for the District of Columbia and the territories. Dr. Huntington then spoke on the subject of the minority report on liturgical revision, criticising the report severely. An animated debate pro and con ensued, in the course of which Rev. Dr. Holland, of Minnesota, said that no church could tell him what prayers to offer in the privacy of his family, and he protested against making a crazy-quilt of the prayer book. Dr. Phillips Brooks argued strongly in favor of revision. Finally, after about five hours of discussion, the vote was taken, the minority report was lost and the report of the majority will come up for consideration to-morrow.

Close of the Congregationalists' Session.

WORCESTER, Oct. 15.—The business of the Congregationalists' council was practically finished at the afternoon session yesterday. The question of a closer union with the Methodist Protestants was referred to the committee in charge of such matters. A delegation to attend the proposed international council was appointed and the proposition to exhibit the advance made in the Congregationalists at the exposition of 1892 was referred to the provisional committee, with power to act. The council dissolved for three years.

Lutheran Pulpits for Lutherans.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 15.—In the Evangelical church conference to-day there was a lengthy discussion of the action of the general conference at Akron, Ohio, in 1872. The rule there adopted, styled the "Akron rule," provided that Lutheran pulpits were for Lutheran ministers only, and Lutheran altars for Lutheran communicants only. The result of the discussion was that as the council had never annulled or reconsidered the declaration made at Akron the rule remains in force.

Pueblo's Mineral Palace.

PUEBLO, Colo., Oct. 15.—The contract for the construction of the Colorado mineral palace at this place was awarded to-day. The architecture will be Egyptian in style, and the building will be one of the largest and handsomest in the west, costing over $250,000. When opened it will contain gases and mineral specimens from the mines of Colorado and all over the world, the value of which will be enormous. The exhibits are to be permanent and open the year around.

WAITING FOR THE RESULT

Both Sides in Silver Bow County Anxiously Looking to the Meeting of Court.

Democrats Justly Indignant, but They Will Look to the Law Only for Justice.

Chairman Jack Leaves Butte for an European Tour—No Contests in Deer Lodge County.

BUTTE, Oct. 15.—[Special.]—There was no change in the election situation to-day. Great excitement prevailed on both sides, on account of the probable far-reaching results of the decision of the board of canvassers. Democrats are indignant that the results of the returns should be changed. The republicans remain firm, and both sides will await the session of the district court with the utmost impatience and anxiety. There has been some slight talk, both yesterday and to-day, of some overt act, such as the hanging of the offending canvassers in effigy by indignant democrats, but better counsel prevailed, and no such demonstration will be made.

Jack, chairman of the board of canvassers, left this afternoon via the Northern Pacific, for Scotland. County Clerk Booth has stated that he would issue election certificates to no one, until the questions at issue had been settled by the courts. He said he did not make this statement in a partisan way, but because he did not consider himself authorized by any law to issue certificates in a case like the present. Mr. Kirkpatrick, one of the democratic counsel, is of the opinion that there was a distinction to be made in the standing of the members of the legislature and the county officials in the courts. Just what the difference might be, was a question which would require more careful consideration than he had yet given it, but he thought the legislature itself would be the judge of the credentials of its own members.

No Contest in Deer Lodge.

DEER LODGE, Oct. 15.—[Special.]—The canvass in Deer Lodge county was completed this evening. The votes on the state ticket are as follows: For the constitution, 3,802; against, 533; Toole, 3,133; Power, 2,587; Conrad, 2,888; Richards, 2,737; Brown, 2,924; Rotwit, 2,691; Haskell, 2,657; Pemberton, 2,944; Collins, 2,888; Hickman, 2,719; Fitzgerald, 2,824; Kinney, 2,781; Gordon, 2,894; Russell, 2,898; Blake, 2,715; De Wolfe, 2,894; Bickford, 2,894; Armstrong, 2,893; Harwood, 2,698; DeWitt, 2,677; Cope, 2,794; Kennedy, 2,749.

The board of canvassers had no trouble in canvassing the votes whatever, except the labor necessary for the work. No protests have been filed and it is probable none will be filed. A prominent republican informs your correspondent that there will probably be no contest in this county. Only two republicans were elected, Blair for representative and Slaton for assessor, by very small majorities.

Indignant Cascade Republicans.

GREAT FALLS, Oct. 15.—[Special.]—The attempt in Silver Bow county to defeat the popular will causes much indignation here. Many republicans are dissatisfied with the conduct of Billy Jack and his associate. They force that it means disgrace and discredit to the party. The democrats will resist the atrocious fraud to the utmost. They would prefer to see dishonor rather than yield to such dishonor.

NO TIME FOR MAKESHIFTS.

President Cleveland's Counsel to the Pennsylvania Democrats.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 15.—The first general assembly of the democratic societies of Pennsylvania convened here to-day. A letter was read from ex-President Cleveland, commending the objects of the societies, in which he says: "The condition of political affairs is such that the attention of all true democrats should be directed to the enforcement of distinctive principles, and in my opinion this is no time for a search after makeshifts and temporary expedients. We, as a party, are fairly enlisted in the cause of the people, and patriotic duty and party success require that we should be consistent and steadfast."

A letter was also read from ex-Speaker Randall, who said in part organization is what is needed in our state, and every effort should receive the encouragement and support of every democrat in our good old commonwealth.

The Indian in Politics.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—The Indian as a political factor is likely in the near future to attract public attention. By the recent acts of congress every Indian over 21 years of age who receives an allotment of land in severalty becomes a voter. The successful termination of the negotiations with the Sioux Indians next year will throw into Dakota 4,367 voters, and the negotiations now in progress will make many more. At the interior department it is thought upward of 20,000 Indians will be entitled to vote at the next presidential election.

South Dakota to Elect Senators To-day.

PIERRE, S. D., Oct. 15.—The first session of the South Dakota legislature convened at 10 o'clock. The members were sworn in and Gov. Mellette delivered his inaugural address, after which the legislature adjourned until Wednesday, when they will ballot for United States senators.

St. Paul, Oct. 15.—Private advices from Pierre, S. D., state that the republican legislative caucus to-night, Judge Moody, of Deadwood, and Pettigrew, of Sioux Falls, were decided upon for United States senators.

Brooklyn Wins the Pennant.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—The defeat of the St. Louis Browns to-day at Cincinnati makes it impossible for that club to win the championship as the season closed to-day. Brooklyn wins the pennant. The club returned home to-day and was welcomed by an enthusiastic crowd.

LOADED FOR BEAR.

An Infernal Machine Which Would Annihilate a Man Sent by Mail.

MELWAUKEE, Oct. 15.—A package was received at the postoffice yesterday addressed W. B. Neoves, a well known milling man, from Grand Rapids. It was found to contain an infernal machine of cunning construction, a loaded and cocked pistol, ten dynamite cartridges, and also a quarter of a pound of powder. It is deemed a miracle that the package was opened in such a way as not to fire it off. The police have taken it in charge, but there is no clue to the senders.

DEATH ON THE TRACK.

An Appalling Accident on an Inclined Railway at Mount Auburn, Ohio.

The Machinery Refuses to Work and a Number of People are Dashed to Death.

A Terrible Ride Down a Frightful Slope—List of the Killed and Injured Passengers.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 15.—The most appalling accident ever known on the inclined plane railways of this city happened to-day between 12 and 1 o'clock on the Mount Auburn inclined plane. It lies at the head of Main street and reaches a height of between 250 and 300 feet in a space of 2,000 feet. Two cars are employed, one on each track drawn by two steel wire cable wound upon a drum at the top of the hill by an engine located there. Nine passengers had entered the car at the foot of the plane and a number were in the other car at the top.

The passage of the ascending car was all right until it reached the top, when, to his horror, the engineer found the machinery would not respond, and he could not stop the engine. Only one result was possible. The car was arrested by a stronger bumper which stopped its progress, and as the engine continued all its force was expended on the two cables, which snapped like wrapping thread. Then the car, with its nine inmates locked within, began its descent of that frightful slope. The crash at the foot of the plane was frightful. The iron gate that formed the lower end of the track, on which a car rested, was thrown sixty feet down the street, and the top of the car almost as far in the gutter.

The truck itself and floor and seats of the car formed a shapeless wreck, mingled with the bleeding and mangled bodies of the passengers. As soon as it could be done the dead were taken to the morgue to await full identification. The wounded were carried to the nearest place where an examination could be made.

The following is a correct list of the dead and wounded:

DEAD.
JUDGE WILLIAM B. DICKSON.
MICHAEL KNISS.
MRS. CALEB IVES.
MRS. MARY G. ERRETT.
JOSEPH McFADDEN, Sr.

WOUNDED:
MRS. HOSTETTER.
MISS LILLIAN ESKAMP.
JOS. McFADDEN, Jr.

Besides the occupants of the car several persons standing on Mulberry street were badly hurt. Geo. Miller, it is believed, was fatally injured. He is still unconscious. Joe Huette, aged 14, was badly cut about the legs by flying fragments.

SPARKS FROM THE WIRES.

The family of Ralph Waldo Emerson, whose grave was discovered on Sunday to be open, are satisfied the body was not disturbed, and no further investigation will be made. A heavy masonry tomb will be constructed.

Serious Charges Against London Editors.
LONDON, Oct. 15.—Claude Markel and Sidney Woolfe, proprietors of the Mining Record, and Mr. Marx, a writer on the Financial Times, have been arrested on a warrant charging them with threatening to publish a libel with intent to extort money.

Obstructing the Streets.

SPOKANE FALLS, Oct. 15.—[Special.]—H. B. Strong, acting assistant principal engineer of the Northern Pacific, was taken into custody to-day by Police Captain Gus Martin, on the charge of obstructing a city thoroughfare by excavating. He was released on bond of $250 till the 22nd.

THE DEATH RECORD.

Sir Daniel Gooch, the well known English engineer, is dead.

James Prescott Goule, of London, the distinguished scientist, is dead.

A dispatch from Kerrville, Texas, announces the death of ex-Governor Perry, of Florida, there yesterday.

Hon. Newton W. Nutting, of New York, who on Saturday last resigned his seat in congress, died yesterday of cancer of the jaw.

Hon. Joseph A. Spradling, president of the new Mexican Printing company, receiver of public monies at the local land office and public printer of New Mexico, died suddenly yesterday at Santa Fe.

Southern Negroes All Right.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 15.—The negro democratic state committee to-day adopted a set of resolutions setting forth that "the republican leaders of the north are misrepresenting the two races of the south by incendiary speeches, wholly uncalculated for; that the committee states to the colored people of the country the theory that will do the negroes of the south and north more good than anything else is a division of the negro vote; that educated negroes are doing better in the south than in the north, and that the best thing the southern negro can do is to cease his war policy on his white neighbors."

Thrown from His Buggy.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 15.—Ex-Congressman Steele, recently prominent as a probable successor to Ex-Commissioner of Pensions Tanner, was nearly killed to-day at Marion, Ind. He was out riding with his wife when the horses ran away, throwing them both out. Each had an arm broken and were otherwise injured.

It Was a Canard.

The report of an accident on the Union Pacific railway last night was absolutely without foundation.
